OUR SINCERE APOLOGIES

FOR LAST week's "HARD TO READ" Issue!
You will find RePRINTs of Requested Items
in This Issue.

The Editor

A SUGGESTION:

Why Doesn't Someone Pick up Papers
and Magazines For the Scouts' Annual Paper Drive EVERY Week - OR MONTH? Many TONS of Paper are Thrown OUT - OR burned because The average Citizen has no Place To Put them.
Surely There is an empty Storeroom somewhere in Brisbane in which a year's accumulation of Papers could be stored until "Drive Time".

— A Brisbane Citizen.

SERVICEMAN'S CORNER:

Hello, fellows. We got a pretty important looking letter from the NAVY DEPARTMENT the other day. When we opened it and read it--the nice guy it was all about was sitting right next to us at the usual gathering place of "Junior Citizens" (yak yak! That's a joke, son!)--Here's the letter:

OFFICIAL BUSINESS:

Public Information Off.
U.S. Naval Hospital
Oakland, 25 Oct. 51

SPECIAL TO THE BRISBANE BYLINE:

Cpl. Robert H. Tann, USMC, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Tann, 73 San Benito Road, Brisbane, California--has arrived at U.S. Naval Hospital, Oakland, California, from overseas.

He is being treated for multiple shrapnel wounds received while serving with the 7th Regiment, 1st Marine Division, 11 September 1951, on the Korean front.

Tann was a grocery clerk and attended Daly City high school (Jefferson Union High School) prior to entering the Marine Corps three years ago.

He has been awarded the Purple Heart ribbon and medal.

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE

Well, there you have it--all you fellows who have been worrying about Bob Tann. He's home now, on thirty day leave. He limps slightly, has lost a lot of weight, (which he is gaining back via the "hamburgers & cheeseburgers" route!)--and has marks like purple spots on his hands--the pieces of shrapnel which must work their ways out of his system. But he looks mighty good to us---and you can guess how good he must look to his folks!

Now--after the above good news, we have to give you some bad news right on top of it. Larry (Bratton) Jenkins is in a Korean hospital at the present moment, after having been twice wounded. According to reports received here, he first received shrapnel wounds in one hand--and then got a sniper's bullet in his back. According to Larry's grandmother, two ribs are shattered and one lung damaged. She has not received full particulars as yet. Mrs. Hall told us that Larry may be sent back here soon, to the hospital at the Presidio. Let us hope that he is up and around in time for his birthday on November 18th. How did we know his birthday? Well, that's your Editor's birthday, too--also Elsie Von Schoven's, of the Brisbane 5 & 10. We Scorpio's always do things the hard way, eh, Larry? Hurry home, kid--we miss you!

Now for some letters from our other boys over there--still slogging along in the muck and the mud which is called Korea---and one from a lad who still has it to "look forward to"---:

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA

23 Oct. 51

Dear Reeces:

Just a line to let you know I just got another Byline, and was glad to hear from you and to read the hometown paper.

Guess who I ran into over here the other day?--Of all people--DON WALTON! It was really good to see him again. He was in good health, so he said. I am going to try to get him to come back for a Bull Session.

How is Bob Tann? I heard he was wounded over here. Well, I guess I had better close for now--hoping to hear from you and to read many more Bylines. as ever,

PFC JIM RICE

*****

Hi, Jim. Your question about Bob Tann is already answered in this column. Glad you got to see Don Walton. I see his brother Konny quite often here at home, and his mother occasionally. Glad you got so much enjoyment out of the Byline. And to think I was so discouraged after last week's trouble with the Mimoo machine, and all the resulting complaints about the faded print, that I was just about to close up shop and stay home, making like a housewife again. But when you fellows write me letters like that--how can I quit??? I guess I can "keep trying" too!

*****

KEESLER A.F. BASE

BILIOXI, MISS. 23 Oct 51

Dear Reeces:

First of all, let me tell you how wonderful it was to be home on leave! I was sure glad to be able to struggle up "Main Street" once more. Down here in the South it's all on the level (almost), and Brisbane certainly was a welcome change.

I suppose you've heard about the Bilioxi Investigations. It's really in full swing now. The Senate Investigation Committee is really on the warpath about the slot machines. They've had the mayor, chief of police, Provost Marshall, and even the Base Commander on the witness stand. The New Orleans papers are sure eating it up!

Wha' happen? I haven't received a Byline since I got back. Something wrong???

I'm happy to say that contrary to former beliefs, I may be able to get home to spend Christmas with my family, and --ah--friend! As ever,

PFC BOB MINK.

Thankee for your letter Bob. Yes, we've been reading about the Bilioxi Investigations in our coast papers, too. In regards not getting Bylines--we sent two at once, instead of one each week as before. With friend husband away hunting for "deer"--had to handle over my self--ran out of time!

YE EDITOR.

JUDY DOES IT AGAIN!

For once the senior assembly came off on time. I think this is mainly due to the constant effort of Judy Woodard who was the ruling hand behind the upper classmen. So--we say, nice going to Miss Woodard, for showing a good spirited example to the rest of the school that a class assembly can be fun.

--from the TOTEM POLE of Oct. 26

P.S.--Other Brisbane kids connected with the above assembly were SHERRY LAWRENCE, who portrayed Judy Holiday of "Born Yesterday" fame; Scotty Hickman, as Jerry Lewis; and Richie Trantham, as Clem Diddlehopper--the Master of Ceremonies! LION'S TO SEND CAKES TO SERVICEMEN:

The local Lion's Club has just contacted the Byline, to get a list of all local boys now serving with the armed forces, for the purpose of sending each a fruitcake for Christmas. If your son is in Service, and his name is not on the Byline list, please contact some member of the Brisbane Lion's Club, or your Byline Editor, immediately.

The Brisbane Lion's howled in assorted costumes last Saturday night when they cavorted and pranced in the annual Halloween get-together at Dick's Tower. Many wierd looking characters running around town after dark last Saturday night!

IN RE: SANITARY DISTRICT:

The following letter was sent to 22 different organizations and clubs, requesting representatives to meet with the Brisbane Improvement Club to discuss the Sanitary District:

"After considerable discussion on the floor during the September meeting of the Brisbane Improvement Club, it was the consensus that a letter be directed to all organizations in Brisbane requesting that a representative from each organization attend an informal meeting on Nov. 15th in the American Legion Hall, at 8 P.M. for the purpose of weighing the benefits to be derived in the formation of a Sanitary District.

Please advise us as soon as possible who your representative will be, together with the telephone number.

Thanking you for your cooperation,

Yours very truly,

THE BRISBANE IMPROVEMENT CLUB

REPEAT ON LAST WEEK'S P.T.A. ITEM:

MOTHER-TEACHER TEAS: Brisbane's mothers and teachers were kept busy last week attending the annual Mother-Teacher teas, sponsored by the Brisbane P.T.A. for the purpose of acquainting parents with their children's teachers, and giving the parents first hand information of exactly what their children's activities and studies consist of throughout this school term. The first of the teas was held on Tuesday of last week for the lower grade mothers and teachers. (Oct 16th) Mrs. Roy Edwards, president Brisbane P.T.A., met the mothers as they arrived and welcomed them to the tea. A buffet teas was served by Mrs. Edward Whitson, Mrs. Sullivan, and Mrs. Bonnett. Dr. Frances Gulland of San Jose State College was introduced to the assemblage by Miss Natalie Lipman, school Superintendent. Dr. Gulland spoke of the new method of teaching the lower-grade group. The second tea was held Wed., Oct 17, for the upper grades, following the same procedure as the day before, with the speaker being Miss Cecelia Anderson, Associate Professor of Education at San Francisco State College. She spoke on the problems of teaching upper grade students. At this second tea, Mrs. Alfred Pistohl and Mrs. Robert Parrish officiated at the buffet table.

EDITOR'S NOTE: THE ABOVE ITEM, AND THE GILMAN ITEM WERE THE TWO MOST REQUESTED ITEMS FOR RE-RUN. IN CASE YOU WERE WONDERING, THE MIMCO MACHINE WENT ON THE BLINK! PLEASE BEAR WITH US A LITTLE WHILE LONGER. CAN'T AFFORD A NEW ONE YET.

REPEAT ON LAST WEEK'S GILMAN ITEM:

Due to last week's poor printing job, we are repeating the item most requested:

BRISBANE SHOWS LOYALTY TO GILMAN:

Showing it's faith, loyalty, and gratitude in a way to astound the casual observer from a less humane community, Brisbane once more stands solidly behind one of it's citizens. More than 200 local residents signed petitions as character witnesses for V.V. Gilman here on Tuesday afternoon. In a little more than four hours, a handful of local citizens went from door to door asking "Do you think Mr. Gilman is guilty of the crime of which he is accused?" In almost every case, the answer was "No--it's Ridiculous!"--Among the group who worked so ceaselessly in the fog and drizzle was Mrs. May Doyle, who not only got her petition filled, but collected $50 for Gil's court expenses. Mrs. Hazel McMorvan, who got two complete petitions filled--Mrs. Vera Scott, of the Fountain of Youth, who collected about $25 from friends and customers,--Joan Honsinger, who--with the help of Helen Fassett--got her petition filled plus six extra signers--Mrs. Golda Feeleman, Mrs. Mildred Young, young Vera Scott, Mrs. Lola Miles, Mr. Les Aiken, of Les's Market--and Mrs. Helen Cheslyn of Webber and Soward Real Estate, who helped immensely by typing up some of the petitions.

Good news for those hard-workers is the fact that their diligence paid off in good results. Att'y Lois Preston, famous for her expert handling of the "Mary Astor Diary" case some years ago, heard of Brisbane's faith in Gil, and came to him and offered her services as an attorney. Her first act was to get a continuance on the case, to enable her to get more material together. She and Judge John Fahey, also representing Gilman, will go before Judge Shapiro, and they feel that they can get a verdict in Gil's favor.

The Gilman's phoned the Byline office on Wednesday, and asked that we present their heartfelt gratitude to the people of Brisbane for their evidence of faith in them--and to thank the good people who worked so hard.

IN REGARDS TO THE ABOVE, NO FURTHER NEWS HAS COME INTO THE BYLINE OFFICE. WE WILL REPORT ON IT WHEN WE HAVE SOMETHING TO REPORT.
the editor.

LOCAL THEATER TO RE-ISSUE GOOD FILMS:

You lovers of Valentino--of the child Shirley Temple--of the early Clark
Gable--Spencer Tracy, Victor Mature, Rex
Harrison, Alice Faye, Claudette Colbert, Charley Chaplin, W.C. Fields--you have a treat in store for you. Bob Hutsell, Mgr.
of the Brisbane Theater, is starting something new this coming week. On Tuesdays and Wednesdays, hereafter, only Re-Issues will be played. He is starting off with TOBACCO ROAD and ROSE OF WASHINGTON SQUARE.
The rest of the re-issues will be up to you movie-goers. Mr. Hutsell says he will order only those pictures you folks request, via penny postal, or in person.
So--if you would like to see such all-time
greats as "CALL OF THE WILD", "POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL", "STANLEY & LIVIN-STON", "MOSS
ROSE", "FOXES OF HARROW", "MARK OF ZORRO",
"THE SHIEK", and others--Remember, it's up to you. Incidentally--have you notice
ed the FINER pictures we are getting here now? No longer do we have to wait for a picture to grow whiskers on it, before we get to see it. We think Mr. Hutsell has done a fine job, and should be congratulated on his choice of pictures for the local movie-going public!

BRISBANE LARKS WIN 1ST WINTER GAME:

The Brisbane Larks won their first
